

REBELLION IN STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once ends indigestion and Sour, Acid Stomach

Lumps of undigested food cause pain. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; hiccups and acids and a variety of undigested food—just take a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the pain, acidity, indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless stomach antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.—Adv.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

MRS. COW'S TALK.

"Now cows," said Mrs. Cow, "I'd like to talk. I hope none of you will be so rude as to moo and interrupt me when I start speaking."

"Of course when I get to the end of a sentence I do not mind if you say 'Moo, moo, that was fine, fine!'"

"What if we should say, 'Moo, moo, that was horrible, horrible!'" suggested another cow. "What would you say to that?"

"That would be something I couldn't permit," said Mrs. Cow. "It would be very rude. But I think you will all agree with me in what I have to say."

"We don't really know whether we will or not," said the other cows. "Of course not, Moo, moo," said Miss Bossy. "We don't know at all."

"Too bad," said Mrs. Cow, "that you shouldn't show a little more trust and confidence in Mrs. Cow, your own friend and companion, Mrs. Cow."

"Too bad," said the other cows, "but we haven't a great deal of sense. And we're not so affectionate that we love you because you're one of us. Sometimes a cow shows affection, but as a rule we're a rather unaffectionate lot."

"Well," said Mrs. Cow, "the only thing for me to do is to tell you what I have to tell you and then maybe you'll think different."

"In fact, I feel sure you will feel different."

"We thought you said we'd feel the same," said the other cows. "You'll agree with me," said Mrs. Cow, "and so you will feel different from the way you do now. Now you don't agree with me."

"We don't either agree or disagree," said one of the other cows, "but we do wish you'd tell us what you have to tell us so we can see whether we agree or not."

"Some of us may agree, and some of us may not," said Miss Bossy. "The young cow speaks wisely," said another cow.

"Are you going to give me a chance to talk?" asked Mrs. Cow. "Moo, moo, give her a chance," the others said.

"You see," said Mrs. Cow, as she chewed slowly and as though time meant nothing to her, "they say that cows give milk."

"Well, that's the truth, isn't it?" asked Miss Bossy. "If you mean us to agree with you about that we will, or if you mean us to disagree with you in not agreeing with it."

"Now, Miss Bossy, don't say too much and get mixed up," said Mrs. Cow. "Wait until I have finished."

"Moo, moo, wait until she has finished," the others said.

"They say that cows give milk," Mrs. Cow continued, "but we don't actually give it."

"What do we do, moo, moo, what do we do?" asked the other cows.

"We make the farmer pay us in board and lodgings," said Mrs. Cow. "Ha, ha, cows are business creatures, we're paid for our milk. Of course we are."

"And when food for us is more expensive the farmer charges more for the milk. You see we don't give our milk exactly. We give it in return for the payment of food and board."

"A good idea," said the other cows. "Moo, moo, you're right. We don't give our milk at all. We give it in return for something, for two things, in fact."

"Yes, moo, moo, Mrs. Cow, we agree with you. You're a wise cow."

"And we're all wise cows, moo, moo," said Mrs. Cow, "to insist upon board and lodging in return for our milk. Why that is the way people do! They give their time for work and in return they get money which pays the rent and buys the food!"

She knew it.

Five-year-old Margery was invited to a party and, womanlike, she wanted a new frock.

Her mother, finding the child's party dress in good condition, refused to buy another.

Her father, trying to console his little daughter, said:

"Let me see the dress, Margery."

She brought it out and he said:

"Why, Margery, it is very pretty! I've never seen it before."

"Well," responded the child, "I've seen it often."

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is enclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. At the first sign that your kidneys are not working properly, go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refund, if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

A BLACK-DRAUGHT FAMILY

An Interesting Record

A Letter From the Mother of the Family

Winchester, Tenn., September 17, 1919.

I am the mother of seven boys and seven girls, all about grown. We, I suppose, are one of the healthiest families in the South. . . . We are a large family; you will see very few families, mother and father, with fourteen grown children, who can say that their health is better than ours, and we have used for our family medicine THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT, and very little of anything else.

BLACK-DRAUGHT is the best liver tonic I have ever seen. We have used it for headache, torpid liver and constipation, and it is just as recommended.

MRS. PEGGIE ROSE.
